

SEPTEMBER 2021 AAUW HIKES - Fridays

Meet at the park and ride in Healdsburg at 9:00 am. Reminder will go out on Wednesday. If you lose your schedule, look on the website for the schedule. <https://healdsburg-ca.aauw.net/interest-groups/hiking/>

9-3 Point Reyes Station Julia Graves

We will hike the Sky Camp Trail, Point Reyes Station. This is a 9.4 mile loop trail rated as moderate. Features forest to beach views. Bring poles, water and lunch.

9-10 South Burma Trail Annadel State Park Kerry Elkind

South Burma Trail Loop is a 7.6 mile moderately trafficked loop trail located in the Trione-Annadale State Park in Santa Rosa. The elevation for this hike is 1,161 feet. It's a nice, moderate hike with lots of beautiful scenery, varied landscapes to enjoy, and a good amount of wild life. Bring poles, water, and lunch.

9-17 Tolay Lake Regional Park Neita Comings

We will hike approx. 8.5 miles on relatively level trails. Lunch will be at the picnic table with a pretty view at the turn around point. The trails are pretty but exposed so bring hat, lunch and water. Poles are optional.

9-24 Jack London State Park Judy Fajita

We will hike an 8,6 mile loop in Jack London State Historic Park starting on the Sonoma Mountain trail, then heading up the Ridge trail, then down the Coon trail and then back to the parking lot on the Vineyard trail. Elevation gain is 1817 feet. The trail is rated as moderate. Bring water, poles (the downhill on the Coon trail is steep) and lunch.
